Writers' Guild
Welcomes Work of Non-Members

"We want to emphasize our standing invitation to anyone who likes to write to submit original material at any of our meetings, and this invitation includes non-members," Mrs. Cleo Cooper, president of San Pedro Writers' Guild said today.

"Material submitted may be poetry, prose, fiction or fact," she adds. Meetings are held at 359 Seventh st. the second and fourth Tuesdays, 7:30 to 9 p.m. At the last meeting Inez Brumbelow contributed a television script, "My Destiny." Poetry of the evening included "Home" by Mrs. Cooper, and "Old Man" by Cecil B. Neth.

Abe Abrams submitted a radio script written for audiences of children of the elementary school level, "Turbanak Gordon and the Legumes." It was announced that Hilda Abrams' script, "Beach Party," was produced on Teen Age program by KRKD, and then re-broadcast in connect with the Harbor Town Forum over KGER. Both programs were handled by members of Glenn Gardiner's teen age workshop of San Pedro High School.

Harold Monroe's humorous article, "Don't Be Too Rejected," recently published by The Writer's Monthly, pointed out satisfactions derived from writing for its own sake.

J. Roy Gardiner contributed a brief article on "Uses of Sawdust in Soil Management." The guild is a member association of Art Patrons.

Stephen Sabosky,
Miss Muriel Sinner
Tell Wedding Vows

Lovely in a wedding frock of eyelet embroidered silk, Miss Muriel Sinner was married to Stephen Sabosky at St. James Catholic Church. The dress had a short train and sweetheart neckline and with it she carried a cascade of carnations and lilies of the valley with a removable orchid corsage. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sinner of 713 S. Broadway, Redondo Beach. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Sabosky of 816 Amapola avenue.

Mrs. Jack Larkins, sister of the bride, in yellow net over taffeta and with yellow roses and orchid sweet peas in her bouquet was matron of honor. Mary Katherine Sinner and Lucille Sabosky, both in pale green chiffon and carrying carnations and green sweet peas were bridesmaids. Four-year-old Jacqueline Larkins, a niece of the bride, was flower girl.

Robert Sinner was best man for the bridegroom. Gerald Sinner, Albert Sabosky and Robert Marshall were ushers. Father Patrick Higgins performed the wedding ceremony. Anna Marie Del Alba sang the wedding songs, and Helen Grundman presided at the organ. Arthur Sinner gave his daughter in marriage.

The bride received her education at St. James School and Redondo Union High School. Sabosky was educated in Illinois and served four years overseas as a staff sergeant during World War II.

A reception followed in St. James Auditorium, and later breakfast was served for the immediate families of the couple at a restaurant in Manhattan Beach.

When they return the newlyweds will be at home at 520 S. Francisco Ave., Redondo Beach.

Job's Daughters
Guardian Council
Hear Queen's Plans

Members of Job's Daughters Guardian Council met recently at the home of Mrs. Gladys Evans, guardian, 1655 W. 210th street.

Principal business was a discussion of activities planned for the ensuing year by Marlene Quaglin, honored queen of Torrance, Bethel, No. 50, International Order of Job's Daughters. Among the plans projected by Miss Quaglin were an ice cream social, doughnut sale, "come-as-you-are" breakfast, harvest carnival and a sale of cards, all to be concluded by a dinner and show in Los Angeles.

Accompanying the honored queen to the meeting, attended by all members of the Guardian Council, was Joann Sandstrom, senior princess. Refreshments were served.

HOME AGAIN

Mrs. Robert Elpper and son Dickie, of 2415 Sonoma avenue, returned Friday by plane from Yakima, Washington. They had been visiting for the past month at the home of Mrs. Elpper's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Dell Henry.

Cottrell-Dunham Nuptials
Are Solemnized in Chapel

MR. AND MRS. THOMAS G. COTTRELL
Wed in Double Ring Ceremony . . .

Miss Marjorie Elaine Dunham became the bride of Thomas George Cottrell in an impressive and beautiful double ring, candlelight ceremony solemnized at 8 o'clock Monday evening in Colonial Chapel, Redondo Beach. Rev. Ben H. Lingenfelter officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Dunham, of 1403 West Carson street, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Lee Cottrell, of Long Beach.

The chapel was decorated with a profusion of all-white blossoms.

The attractive brunette bride entered on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. She wore an original gown of white slipper satin, fashioned with long train, and scalloped overskirt. Tiny buttons outlined the bodice and the leg o'mutton sleeves tapered to points at the wrists. Her only jewelry was a strand of seed pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. The bride's heart shaped sweetheart bouquet was of malibu white carnations and bouvardia with a removable corsage of white orchids. Her fingertip veil of illusion, edged with imported Chantilly lace, was draped from a tiara of pearls.

Mrs. Joy Kenworthy, of Hollywood, was her sister's matron of honor. Her gown was of yellow taffeta, complemented by a tiara of matching flowers and net. She carried a cascade bouquet of yellow Gloria roses and light blue delphinium.

The bridesmaids, the Misses Alyce Marshall, Lillian Strlika, Ima Petty, and Louise Peterson, wore gowns fashioned alike of orchid organdie, sea green marquisette, pink taffeta and light blue marquisette, respectively. Each wore a large heart shaped hat to harmonize with her gown and carried a Colonial bouquet of roses and variegated sweet peas.

Little Joan Rayercraft, daughter of Judge and Mrs. Joseph Rayercraft, of San Pedro, was flower girl dressed in a frock of turquoise blue with coronet of Cecile Brunner roses.

Davis Goure, of Long Beach, attended the bridegroom and ushers were Arthur Block and Harold Block, of Bellflower and Howard Davis and Robert Clark, of Long Beach.

M. R. Scott played the traditional wedding marches and the accompaniment for John Hertert, noted baritone, who sang, "I Love You Truly," "Always" and "The Lord's Prayer."

A reception for 175 guests in the patio and gardens of the bride's parents immediately followed the church ceremony. One hundred white wedding bells on white satin ribbon were suspended from trees in the patio, aglow with vari-colored electric lights and all-white flowers and tiny white wedding bells enhanced the setting. Palms and white carnations centered the outdoor fireplace and baskets of white stock completed the floral decorations.

Mrs. Dunham received her guests in a gown of aqua jersey complemented by a corsage of Finch roses. Mrs. Cottrell, mother of the bridegroom, attended in a pink gown with Finch roses. The bride received her guests in a black and white tailored suit with a white orchid corsage.

A five-tiered wedding cake was cut by the bride and groom and served by the Misses Lillian Strlika and Alyce Marshall. Miss Ima Petty and Mrs. Burley Crawford poured. Mrs. Edward Trassetti, of Los Angeles and Mrs. LeRoy Block, of Bellflower were hostesses in the gift room and Miss Louise Peterson, was custodian of the guest book.

Background music for the reception was furnished by the Misses John Blackmon and Patricia Dunmyer, accordionists and Conrad Wilken played guitar selections.

Included among the 50 out-of-town guests were those from Westwood Hills, Long Beach, Hollywood, Los Angeles, Bellflower, and Hemet.

Mrs. O. S. Briggs, arrived from Boston to attend her niece's wedding and Mrs. Imogene Tabor, of Wauwatosha, Wis., a cousin of the bride, was among the out-of-state guests.

Upon their return from a honeymoon trip to Sequoia National Park, Mr. and Mrs. Cottrell will live at 1434 West Carson street. He is employed at Great Lakes Carbon Company, Waltham, and the bride is a bookkeeper at Dunham's Auto Parts.

Mrs. Cottrell was graduated from Torrance high school and from Burroughs Bookkeeping Machine School and attended
